3. Next Matches

Summer League, Saturday 17th June - Cudmore Fishery on Brewsters.

Meet at venue at 8.00am, 25 Pegs available

Summer League, Saturday 1st July - Boddington Reservoir (20 Pegs Available)

This is our first coach trip, pick up times and locations shown in licence on Page 24. As agreed at a previous meeting this first 2006 coach trip is subsidised at £20 instead of £30.

4. 2006/7 Licences

As at 31st May we had sold 79 licences.

Following a general debate we think we have now sold approximately 140.

5. Fishery Update

Silt survey carried out on Brownlee's Pool by BTCV (British Trust for Conservation Volunteers). We await results.

6. Bailiff Reports

No real issues other than one teenager (██████████), who continues to fish on Whitegate saying he has a licence.

7. Funding

'PB' and 'FD' attended a meeting with Sara Lyons, Regional Development Officer for the Woodland Trust in Northern England,
Sara is to have a follow up discussion with Tim Kirwin to finalise what we need to do to meet 'WT' requirements for Brownlees decking project.
We also require additional contractor contacts to get quotations.
Sara was to speak with Tim for advise.
'WT' also supplied us an additional funding source '██████████'.
Applications are to be made to this and ██████████. 'PB' to draft letter.

8. Golden Peg

Was ████████ at last meeting (May). 'IA' to confirm latest value at July meeting.

9. Bank Balance

████████████████████

10. Fun Day - 10th June

Assistance requested from members to man stalls on the day.

11. AOB

'ML' to have further discussions with reference to getting a match on the canal.

Sub-Committee to be created to pursue 'fishing school' at next meeting.
